

 Lauriston Jesuit Centre

Archbishop Romero Anniversary Mass

Easter Monday

24 March 2008, 12.30 p.m.

Sacred Heart Church,
Lauriston Street, Edinburgh

A few days before he was shot, Archbishop Romero said prophetically that if he was killed, he would rise again in the people. How right he was! His memory remains alive throughout the world. To honour that memory here in Scotland, and to acknowledge the many links we have with El Salvador, all are welcome to Sacred Heart to the celebrate his rising in the people as we celebrate the resurrection of Christ on Easter Monday.

Archbishop Oscar Romero was assassinated on the 24th of March 1980 as he celebrated mass in San Salvador, the capital city of El Salvador. He was the archbishop of San Salvador and was 63 years old when he was killed. He had been archbishop since 1977 and was an outspoken voice speaking up for the poor of the country and for justice and peace.

All Welcome

For more information contact:

Fr Chris Boles SJ
The Lauriston Jesuit Centre
28 Lauriston Street
EDINBURGH
EH3 9DJ

Tel 0131 477 5795
Email: cboles@lauriston.org.uk
www.lauriston.org.uk

IF YOU WANT PEACE
WORK FOR JUSTICE
PAGE 5

